FIELD / COURT / TRACK / OUTDOOR RINK PERMIT APPLICATION 2022

Disclaimer, Release

The person whose name appears above is deemed the permit holder and is responsible for the actions of all persons using the field site in association with this permit. This includes responsibility for removal of all litter and all damages to the site. The permit holder shall be responsible to inspect the field site subject to the permit prior to each use and shall be responsible to bring to the attention of the Director of Recreation any potential problems or defects. Moreover, the permit holder shall be responsible for all crowd control while in possession of the field site subject to the terms of the permit.

The permit holder acknowledges that using the field site in association with this permit may expose the permit holder, and its members and invitees, to risks of personal injury or death resulting from such use, and the exposure to harm such as may be presented by sources of contagion, including the COVID-19 virus. The permit holder is aware and acknowledges that the novel coronavirus, COVID-19, has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization, is extremely contagious, and is believed to be spread mainly from person-to-person contact. While the City of Watertown Recreation Department has put in place preventative measures in an effort to reduce the spread of COVID-19, the City cannot guarantee that the permit holder, and its members and invitees will not become infected with COVID-19, and permit holder acknowledges that use of the field site may increase the risk of contracting COVID-19.

The permit holder, and its members and invitees, using the field site for any purpose under the permit shall assume all risk and danger incidental to such use, including but not limited to exposure to and infection by the COVID-19 virus. The permit holder agrees that the City of Watertown and its officers, officials, employees, staff, agents, board members, volunteers, and attorneys (collectively, the "City") shall not be liable to the permit holder, its members and invitees, for any injury, including but not limited to exposure to and infection by the COVID-19 virus, or death to persons entering the field site pursuant to the permit. Also but not limited to loss or damage to vehicles, equipment or other personal property of any nature whatsoever of the permit holder, its members and invitees, or of anyone claiming by or through the permit holder, that are brought upon the field site pursuant to the permit. The permit holder, on its own behalf and on behalf of its members and invitees, hereby releases and discharges the City from any claim that it may have arising out of the use of the field site pursuant to this permit and further agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the City from and against any and all claims, demands, suits, actions, costs, judgments, whatsoever, including reasonable attorney's fees, which may be imposed upon, incurred by, or asserted against the City by reason of (a) any failure on the part of permit holder and its members and invitees to comply with any provision or term required to be performed or complied with by the permit holder under this permit, or (b) for the death, injury or property damage, including but not limited to exposure to and infection by the COVID-19 virus, suffered by any person on account of or based upon the act, omission, fault, negligence or misconduct of the permit holder and its members and invitees, and any person whomsoever making use of the field site pursuant to this permit.

The permit will immediately be revoked for the use of alcohol or any illegal substance, any violation of the law, and any behavior deemed inappropriate by the Director of Recreation and his/her duly appointed representative. If at any time an unfavorable condition exists or conduct by a participant(s) is deemed inappropriate, the Director of Recreation and his/her duly appointed representative reserves the right, in interest of public safety, to discontinue all activities or dismiss person(s) detrimental to the activity. As conditions of use, the permit holder agrees to furnish at their own expense a police detail if deemed necessary and to reimburse the City for any damages done to the site.

My signature below indicates I have read and agree to the above rules and regulations and disclaimer and release. I will fully abide by terms, conditions and provisions contained or referred to therein.
